About morismedia

Moris Media is a professionally managed public relations, digital marketing and reputation-management organisation with 12+ years of industry experience, recognised as one of the world's leading PR and digital marketing boutique agencies, working across 40+ countries.

Job Summary

Moris Media is currently hiring for a Legal Advisor in Canada. This role is essential for providing expert legal guidance and representation to celebrities in the entertainment industry, addressing a variety of legal matters that impact their careers. The Legal Advisor will be responsible for advising clients on issues related to contracts, copyrights, trademarks, and licensing agreements, ensuring their interests are protected. This position involves negotiating and drafting a range of contracts, including those for film, television, endorsements, and performances, while safeguarding the intellectual property rights of clients.

The Legal Advisor will also handle legal concerns stemming from media engagements, public appearances, and interviews, providing essential guidance on privacy and defamation matters to uphold and protect the clients' reputations. In addition, the advisor will represent celebrities in legal disputes, such as contract disputes and defamation cases, working collaboratively with agents, managers, and publicists to ensure compliance with legal standards.

Candidates should possess a robust knowledge of entertainment law, strong negotiation and drafting skills, and the ability to communicate complex legal concepts clearly. They must be adept at analytical thinking and problem-solving to navigate intricate legal challenges while demonstrating meticulous attention to detail in contract reviews. The ability to maintain discretion and confidentiality is crucial, given the sensitive nature of the information involved. The ideal candidate will have a Bachelor's degree in Law (LL.B.), with an LL.M. preferred, and must hold an active membership in the relevant bar association. Moris Media provides a supportive remote work environment, ensuring a harmonious balance between professional commitments and personal life.

Primary Responsibilities

- Provide expert legal advice to celebrities regarding various aspects of their careers, including contracts, copyrights, trademarks, and licensing agreements.
- Negotiate, draft, and review contracts related to film, television, endorsements, and performances, ensuring favorable terms for clients.
- Safeguard clients' intellectual property rights by addressing issues related to copyright infringement and unauthorized use of their likeness.
- Offer legal guidance on media engagements, public appearances, and interviews to mitigate potential legal risks and protect clients' reputations.
- Assist clients with privacy and defamation matters, providing strategies to uphold their public image and manage any legal challenges.
- Represent clients in legal disputes, including contract disputes, defamation cases, and breach of privacy claims, effectively advocating for their interests.
- Collaborate with agents, managers, and publicists to ensure all legal compliance and protection of clients' rights throughout their career engagements.
- Conduct thorough legal research to stay updated on entertainment law, including recent developments and industry best practices.
- Draft and review legal notices, agreements, and memorandums of understanding (MOUs) to ensure clarity and compliance with applicable laws.

- Maintain accurate and organized records of all legal documents, correspondence, and case files related to clients.
- Provide clients with clear and concise explanations of complex legal concepts, enabling informed decision-making.
- Monitor ongoing legal developments and trends within the entertainment industry, advising clients on how these may impact their careers.
- Uphold the highest standards of discretion and confidentiality when handling sensitive information regarding clients' personal and professional lives.
- Foster strong professional relationships with clients, ensuring a trust-based approach to legal representation and support.
- Participate in professional development activities to enhance legal knowledge and skills relevant to the entertainment industry.

Required Skills

- Experience: 2 to 7 years of relevant experience in entertainment law or a related field, with a proven track record of providing legal counsel to clients in the entertainment industry.
- Educational Background: Bachelor's degree in Law (LL.B.); an LL.M. is preferred. Active membership in the relevant bar association is essential.
- Legal Knowledge: Strong understanding of entertainment law, contract law, intellectual property rights, and privacy law, with the ability to navigate complex legal issues.
- Negotiation Skills: Excellent negotiation and drafting skills to secure favorable terms in contracts and legal agreements.
- Communication Skills: Exceptional verbal and written communication skills to effectively convey complex legal concepts to clients and stakeholders.
- Analytical Skills: Strong analytical and problem-solving abilities to assess legal situations, identify risks, and develop strategic solutions.
- Attention to Detail: Meticulous attention to detail in reviewing contracts and legal documents to ensure accuracy and compliance.

- Creative Thinking: Ability to think creatively and strategically in addressing legal challenges and developing innovative solutions.
- Interpersonal Skills: Strong interpersonal skills to build and maintain relationships with clients, agents, managers, and publicists.
- Discretion and Confidentiality: High level of discretion and confidentiality when handling sensitive information related to clients' personal and professional matters.
- Adaptability: Ability to work in a fast-paced environment and adapt to changing legal landscapes and client needs.
- Travel Flexibility: Willingness to travel as needed for client meetings, negotiations, or industry events.
- Remote Work Proficiency: Familiarity with remote work tools and technology to facilitate effective communication and collaboration.
