Job Summary

A celebrities legal advisor, also known as an entertainment lawyer, is responsible for providing legal advice and representation to celebrities in the entertainment industry. They specialize in various legal aspects that affect celebrities and their careers. The role involves handling a wide range of legal matters, including contracts, intellectual property rights, endorsements, negotiations, and dispute resolution.

Primary Responsibilities

- Advising celebrities on legal matters related to their careers, including contracts, copyrights, trademarks, and licensing agreements.
- Negotiating and drafting contracts for various purposes, such as film and television deals, endorsement deals, and concert performances.
- Protecting celebrities' intellectual property rights and handling issues related to copyright infringement or unauthorized use of their likeness.
- Assisting with legal issues arising from media appearances, interviews, and public statements.
- Providing guidance on privacy and defamation issues to protect the celebrities' reputations.
- Representing celebrities in legal disputes, including contract disputes, defamation cases, and breach of privacy claims.
- Collaborating with other professionals in the entertainment industry, such as agents, managers, and publicists, to ensure legal compliance and protect the celebrities' interests.

Required Skills

- Strong knowledge of entertainment law and its various aspects, such as contract law, intellectual property law, and privacy law.
- Excellent negotiation and drafting skills to secure favorable deals for celebrities.
- Effective communication skills to provide clear legal advice and articulate arguments in legal disputes.
- Analytical thinking and problem-solving abilities to navigate complex legal issues.
- Attention to detail to review contracts and identify potential risks or loopholes.
- Ability to work under pressure and meet tight deadlines in a fast-paced industry.
- Discretion and confidentiality in handling sensitive information related to celebrities' personal and professional lives.

Qualifications & Experience

- Bachelor's degree in Law (LL.B.); LL.M. is preferred.
- Active and in-good-standing membership in the relevant bar association.
- Proven track record of drafting effective legal notices, agreements, and MOUs.
- Strong understanding of media law, intellectual property rights, and contract law.

- 3 to 5 years of experience as a Legal Advisor, preferably within the media or related industry.
- Exceptional research skills to analyze complex legal issues.
- Collaborative mindset and ability to work alongside in-house legal teams.
- An adaptable and proactive approach to legal problem-solving.
- Familiarity with remote work tools and technology.

If you are an experienced Celebrities Legal Advisor with a keen eye for drafting legal documents and a thorough understanding of media law, we encourage you to apply. Moris Media offers a remote work setup, providing a balance between work and personal life. To be considered,
